

Itinerary

ARLINGTON MUSIC HALL will present a “Michael Hix Motown Get Down” concert at 2 p.m. on May 15. Arlington’s Hix makes his return to the venue with a performance that will feature all of your favorite Motown hits, and then some. This is a show that is fun for the entire family and that will have a mixture of incredible music, comedy, dancing, and ... with Michael ... there’s always a lot of surprises in store.

Arlington Music Hall currently has concerts at 50% occupancy, and social distancing seats are available. Masks are mandatory. The staff is also using sanitizing chemical in the venue prior to all shows. arlingtonmusicall.net

CIRCLE THE DATE: The new Arlington Art Dealers Association will host its first Gallery Day Event on June 5, when special exhibitions and classes will be offered at the member galleries: The Upstairs Gallery, College Town Renaissance Center, Contempo Art Glass Gallery and Create Arlington.

The Arlington Art Dealers Association started with a few art professionals on Abram Street wanting to do more to bring attention to the arts in Arlington. The June Gallery Day is the first of three events planned by the organization. facebook.com/Arlington-Art-Dealers-Association-107226304803674

Texas Rangers baseball

This month, your Texas Rangers will play home series against the Boston Red Sox (May 1-2), the Seattle Mariners (May 7-9), the New York Yankees (May 17-20), and the Houston Astros (May 21-23).

mlb.com/rangers

Photo: cnn.com

Cinco de Mayo at Texas Live!

Troy’s at Texas Live! will host a Cinco de Mayo celebration, beginning at 6 p.m. on May 5. Highlights include a free Salsa/Bachata class with the Dallas Dance Studio, half off Tequila Sheela cocktails from 6-8 p.m. and music by DJ Tru-Sound Coalition.

texas-live.com

Photo: texas-live.com

Symphony Arlington

Symphony Arlington will present a concert featuring pianist Simone Sala at 7:35 p.m. on May 6 at Arlington Music Hall. The performance will feature works by Beethoven and Schumann, among others.

symphonyarlington.org

Photo: arlington.org