

HOME SWEET! HOME

This secluded oasis is spacious, comfortable and, well, just homey!

If you head west almost precisely to the point where Arlington bumps into Fort Worth you'll find this glorious oasis located on a quiet street – and discover that it has been designed for both gracious entertaining and comfortable living. Listed by Carolyn Casselberry and Mary Ann Heugatter of The Casselberry-Heugatter Group of Ebby Halliday, Realtors, this 4,225-square foot dwelling features spacious rooms, abundant storage and built-in cabinetry throughout.

The two-level, four-bedroom, four-bathroom home features a chef's kitchen with all the trappings, including granite, a large pantry, a subzero fridge, an island, a desk (yes, a desk!) and a breakfast bar. The impressive main living area offers tranquil views, and the second living area is the epitome of comfort with a wet bar, built-ins, a full bath and access to the backyard patio and pool.

The private Master suite boasts a fireplace, a sitting area, an adjacent study, and a balcony overlooking lush grounds that include a large covered patio and pool.
