

Here's a 'honey, do' list that everyone will enjoy

On (or around) Feb. 14th, make sure you check at least one of these romantic boxes

If you're looking to hit a Valentine's Day home run, you can seldom go wrong by including Timeless Concerts as part of the romantic itinerary.

Timeless Concerts' annual love month event, "The Valentines Special and Fundraiser!," will take place at 8 p.m. on Feb. 12 in the Rose Garden Tea Room (4720 S. Cooper St.).

The concert will include the whole Timeless Concerts crew: violinists LeeAnne Chenoweth and Tim Angel, cellist Oliver Schlaffer, concert pianist Heejung Kang and post-concert party pianist Erik Barnes, soprano Sabrina Romero-Wilson, mezzo soprano Rachel Moon and tenor Sergio Cepeda.

The fare for this heartwarming concert will feature musical variety, from instrumental tangos to the classics of Brahms, Mozart and more. Be sure to hang around after the concert for a delightful combination of food, drink and more music.

When it comes to pampering, no holiday begs for it like Valentine's Day, and virtually nobody pampers like the team at Great Skin Spa & Facial Club (3851 S.W. Green Oaks Blvd.).

Owner Brenda Cureton-Hunt and Co. can help you create and maintain beautiful skin via state-of-the-industry technology and products. She also has championed the practice of receiving professional spa services as part of personal care, as opposed to a special occasional visit or gift due to affordability. Facial Club members receive a wide range of treatment options at the spa, as well as guidance and products they can use at home.

Skin and body care services run a literal gamut, which features a full line of award-winning skin care products, as well as skin and body care for men, women and teens. The bottom line: Great Skin is a great holiday gift choice.

The tradition of Valentine's Day gift giving dates to a time slightly before the opening of Gracie Lane in 2014. However, we hear it on good authority that the tradition of giving the ideal Valentine's Day gift generally includes a visit there.

To get "there," just load the address 4720 S. Cooper St. into your GPS device, follow the instructions, and then smile at the notion that you'll be a hero/heroine, come Feb. 14.

Gracie Lane is recognized as the Arlington area's premier shopping destination for pretty much anything that ends with "and more."

As long-time connoisseurs of the best shopping venues, the members of the Gracie Lane team have gathered the most impressive local collections – featuring all manner of delightful items that generally fall under the category of "the perfect something for the perfect someone."

And, get this: They put them for sale under one delightful roof.

When you visit Gracie Lane, you will be pleased with the quality and excited by the experience – plus you get an added bonus that comes in the satisfaction of supporting local businesses, those that treat every customer like family.

While your heart races at a virtually uncontrollable pace at the breathtaking view of the lovely person sitting across from you at the table on your Valentine dinner date, he/she likely won't hold it against you if you let your eyes wander a bit when you go to Mercury Chophouse.

The view there, from atop one of Arlington's tallest buildings, is downright spectacular, as well.

But that's just the start. The menu and attentive service has won over a vast crowd since the upscale eatery opened three years ago. Oh, and be sure to appreciate the classic steakhouse vibe with wood paneling, piano bar and fellow diners appreciating a great meal and a great time.

The Mercury Chophouse menu includes (among many options) steak, lamb chops, chicken cordon bleu and seafood, along with a slew of mouthwatering enhancements.

There are few better ways to wrap up the dining out portion of the evening than dining in – at least when said dessert comes from Nothing Bundt Cakes.

With a pair of Arlington-area locations (5001 S. Cooper St., Suite 111 and at 839 E. Lamar Blvd.), Nothing Bundt Cakes wins Valentine's Day with the sweet aroma and scrumptious taste of fresh-baked goodies.

You can score big Valentines' Day points by ordering a "love"ly option (or several), but if your favorite date has a favorite Nothing Bundt Cakes staple item, you can get that, as well, from 8- and 10-inch varieties to tiered cakes, from Bundtlets and Bundtlet Towers to the very popular Bundtinis®. Each recipe uses the finest ingredients (i.e., real eggs, butter and cream cheese) to bring you Bundt Cake perfection.

If both of your hearts beat a bit faster at the notion of your favorite sports team, a Valentine's date at No Frills Grill & Sports Bar might be just what the doctor ordered.

With locations in Arlington, Mansfield and East Fort Worth, No Frills Grill is exactly what a sports bar should be. The popular eatery offers sports action on wall-to-wall TVs that carry the NFL Sunday Ticket, NBA League Pass, ESPN Game Plan, NHL Center Ice, and MLB Extra Innings to ensure that you won't miss any of the action.

The friendly staff provides a comfortable atmosphere, which features spacious game rooms with pool tables and the latest video games.

Then there is one of the more diverse menus you will find. With American Pub food to Tex-Mex and many Seafood entrees, you can always discover something new to eat, and there's always something great to drink.
